The screenshot displays the OpenWeatherMap API keys management interface. The top navigation bar includes links for Weather, Guide, API, Dashboard, Marketplace, Pricing, Maps, Our Initiatives, Partners, Blog, For Business, and Support. A dropdown menu is open under 'For Business', showing options like My services, My API keys, My payments, My profile, and Logout. Below the navigation bar, there's a section for API keys with a table listing existing keys and a 'Create key' button. The table has columns for Key, Name, Status, and Actions. The 'Create key' section includes a text input for 'API key name' and a 'Generate' button. At the bottom, there are sections for Product Collections, Subscription, and Company information.
